Catena Group PLC
("Catena" or the "Company")
Proposed Name Change to Insig AI Plc

The Board of Catena is pleased to announce that it continues to make good progress on its proposed acquisition of Insight Capital Partners Limited (the "Acquisition").

As a result, the Company announces its intention, upon completion of the Acquisition, to change its name to Insig AI Plc in order to better represent the new operational focus of the enlarged group. This change will require shareholder approval, which will be sought at the general meeting to approve the Acquisition. Further details will be provided in the Company's admission document in respect of the proposed Acquisition, which the directors expect to publish in due course.
